Details	The program started with invocation song by IIIrd Pharm D students. Dr. Santosh Karajgi, event coordinator, rendered welcome speech. Dr. Shripad Potadar and Miss Renuka Sunagad introduced the guests to the gathering. Guest of Honor, Dr. C.C.Simpi highlighted the importance of preparedness and courage to take up any type of challenges in life with the example of Neil Armstrong, the first person to land on the moon and explained how the whole world remembers his name and not the second person to land on the moon. He also asked the students not to feel themselves inferior comparing with other professions, because Pharmacy discipline itself is a noble profession across the globe. Chief Guest of the function Dr. Sandeep Sajjan explained the importance of Pharmacists in prescription writing and their importance in the medical team. He urged the students to put hard work behind their every work, study well and to respect the parents and teachers. Dr. C.C.Patil, Incharge Principal, presided over the function. Dr. S.M. Biradar, program coordinator offered the vote of thanks. Immediately after the inaugural function, Dr. V.P. Patil, program coordinator introduced the students to curriculum, syllabus and exam pattern etc. through a PowerPoint presentation. Students were given the kit bags containing syllabus, assignment books, record books and other academic information brochures.
